

30 October 2016
2pm - 5.30pm

CELEBRATING 30 YEARS
1986
2016
FREUD MUSEUM
LONDON

THINKING IN CASES: On and beyond the couch

John Forrester's research project, 'thinking in cases', is an attempt to understand the particular kind of thinking that pertains to psychoanalysis and psychotherapy; different from 'scientific' and deductive reasoning but a valid and valuable form of knowledge. This conference brings together speakers from a range of disciplines to investigate the importance of 'thinking in cases'.

Speakers:

ANDREAS MAYER

(Centre Alexandre Koyré, Paris)

MATT FFYTCHÉ

(Essex University)

BARBARA TAYLOR

(Queen Mary's)

STEPHEN FROSH

(Birkbeck College)

STAN RUSZCZYNSKI

(Portman Clinic)

RALUCA SOREANU

(Wellcome Trust)

LISA APPIGNANESI

(Chair)

REGISTRATION

Full Price: £40

Students and concessions: £30

(£5 Discount for Members of the Freud Museum)

The Freud Museum
20 Maresfield Gardens,
London NW3 5SX
freud.org.uk